COSTS

Camp Clayton's sole focus is serving God, working in ministry and building Gods Kingdom.

We are a not-for-profit organisation and for this reason the PEAK leadership Program does require that each accepted applicant pay a course fee to assist with costs.

COURSE FEE $6600

Your fee goes towards your food, accommodation, uniform, training, out trips, live in costs, Tabor CERT III Course and retreats. It's payable by the week, by term or you can pay the full price upfront. Full itemised costs can be made available by request.

Recommendations to assist with course fees

We want to grow and maintain the connection with supporting churches in Tasmania. Our desire is that once you complete the PEAK leadership program you will use your new knowledge, confidence and leadership skills for the building up of your own church and its ministries. For this reason we suggest that you speak to your church and any individual supporters in regards to sponsoring you to assist with your course fee.

If you have any concerns about this, please speak to Tamara or Alex Grey, we are very happy to help you get the support you need to attend the program. We can help by providing a visit to your church, speaking to your pastor/elders and providing you with any other resources.

How Camp Clayton supports PEAK

The Peak Leadership Program Committee is dedicated to fundraising a large portion of the additional cost of this program to limit the impact on camps budget. This is around the $25,000 mark each year.

Successful applicants will be paid by means of food and lodging in place of actual wages with amount shown as wage and deduction on their payslip. This will enable cover for workers compensation and super contributions under Fair Work Obligations A small phone call allowance is also provided. Successful applicants will be asked to sign a Stipend Agreement and recognise Work placement hours are a requirement of their CERT III with Tabor Bible College.

For more information in regard to the costs per person, please contact us. 64251893
